Definition of a Flag

• A flag is a piece of material with a distinctive design that is usually rectangular and used as a symbol, as a signaling device, or decoration, attached on one edge to a pole or rope.
Parts of a Flag

- Hoist: the height of the flag while flying. The term also refers to the edge of the flag that is nearest or attached to the flagpole or staff.

- Fly: 1) The length of the flag, as measured from the attachment to the farthest point. 2) The length of an extended flag.
PARTS OF A FLAG

- Staff ornament or finial
- Truck
- Fly
- Canton
- Field or ground
- Flagpole, flagstaff or mast
- Halyard
- Hoist
Parts of a Flag

• Canton: The "top inner corner of a flag." It is found in the upper left-hand corner of a flag.

  NB- Not all flags have a canton.

• Field: The background colour or section of the flag between the hoist and the fly end. Also sometimes called the ground.

  NB- It does not include the canton.

History of the Union Flag

• The first Union Flag was created in 1606 and combined the flags of England and Scotland.
History of the Union Flag

• The present Union Flag dates from 1801 when St. Patrick’s Cross was added to represent Ireland.

• The flag thus combines the red cross of St George for the Kingdom of England, the white saltire of St Andrew for Scotland and the red saltire of St Patrick to represent Ireland.
